

-
- A scatter plot showing cancer incidence by county. The y-axis represents cancer incidence, with horizontal dashed lines at 100 and 150. The x-axis represents counties. Data points are colored green for 'increased cancer incidence' and brown for 'EPA drinking water standard'. Most points are clustered near the bottom, with a few outliers reaching higher values.

EPA drinking water standard increased cancer incidence